Numb. 447.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From June 30. to July 7. 1737.

LONDON, March 16.

AT the laſt Aſſizes at Wincheſter an old Fellow of the Iſle of Wight, was condemn'd for the Murder of his Grandſon, about 14 Years of Age; he had bred him up from his Cradle, and the Child having ſome way or other diſoblig'd him, he took him out with him one Morning about 6 o'Clock in June laſt, on Pretence of going to a Market Town about ſeven Miles from him to buy Neceſſaries, and carried him into a Wood, and murder'd him with a Bill-Hook, which he had taken with him for that Purpoſe. There was no Confeſſion made by the Villain, nor was the Body found till October, when it could be known by the Hat, Breeches, Stockings and Shoes, which the Child had when he went from Home, and which were found with the Body, together with the Bill-Hook and the old Man's Gloves; he had cut off his Head, and mangled his Body, and put the whole into two Wallets which he alſo carried with him. What cruel Circumſtances might attend the Execution of this horrid Fact is at preſent only known to God and the Murderer: It appears by a Bruiſe on the Skull, which was produc'd in Court, that he firſt knocked him down with the Back of the Bill-Hook; but whether that Blow depriv'd him of all Senſe is uncertain, or whether he did not intercede with his inhuman Grandfather, we cannot ſay: The old Fellow did not return home till about a Week after the Fact was committed, & being ask'd after the Child, & not giving a ſatisfactory Anſwer, he was taken up on Suſpicion; and upon ſearching a Cheſt belonging to him, his Bloody Shirt (which was alſo produc'd in Court) was found wrapp'd up in a clean Shirt; upon which he was committed at the Summer Aſſizes, and now try'd, convicted and condemn'd, and will be hang'd on Saturday next at Wincheſter; but in Chains in the Iſle of Wight.

April 2. The Czarina has nam'd three Plenipotentiaries to repair to the Congreſs at Saroka, but 'tis thought that they will not ſet out till the Court has receiv'd Advice of the Arrival of the Turkiſh Miniſters there, and that the Grand Signior agrees to the Preliminaries offer'd him by the Emperor. In the mean time all poſſible Preparations of War are carrying on with the greateſt Vigour, the Court being reſolv'd to make no Peace but with Sword in Hand, as the only means to obtain an honourable one. The Army commanded by Count Munich will conſiſt of 90000 regular Troops and 15000 Coſſacks; that under Laſci of 40000 regular Troops, beſides Coſſacks and Calmucks. 'Tis much wiſh'd that the Emperor may attack the Turks on the ſide of Walachia.

An Expreſs carried to Stockholm the Original Bonds paſs'd by the Crown of Sweden for Moneys borrow'd by her upon the Cuſtoms of Riga, as alſo Receipts for the Sums paid the Dutch, the Principal and Intereſt of which amounts to 372000 Dutch Florins.

It is certain that the Tartars could not do much Miſchief by their late Entry into the Ukraine, that Province being almoſt a Deſart next the Frontiers. Their Deſign was to have deſtroy'd the Ruſſian Magazines, but the fear of being cut off oblig'd them to a haſty Retreat.

We learn from Vienna, that the Britiſh Miniſter at Conſtantinople was to join the Grand Vizir

Vizir at Babadaghi, and the Porte inſiſted ſtrongly for holding a Congreſs to accomodate the Differences in an honourable manner: But as thoſe Letters take no Notice that the Porte will conſent to the giving up of Aſoph, a War is look'd upon as inevitable, unleſs the Expreſs ſent to Conſtantinople with the Ultimatum of the Conditions on which a Negociation may be grounded, returns with a favourable Anſwer. Preparations for opening the Campaign are doubled: The Imperial Army, 'tis ſaid, will conſiſt of 60 Battalions and 160 Squadrons, beſides 6000 Saxons and 2000 Troops of Wolfenbuttel, provided with ſeventy Pieces of Cannon and 40 Mortars. The Ammunition and Proviſions for the Army are all ready.

The Count de Fuenclara, Ambaſſador from Spain holds frequent Conferences with the Miniſters of State, and has given Aſſurances that it would be a great Pleaſure to his Court to ſee the good Underſtanding between their Imperial and Catholick Majeſties cemented by a Marriage between the King of the Two Sicilies and the ſecond Archdutcheſs, to which the Emperor has yet given no Anſwer.

They write from Madrid, that the Britiſh and Dutch Miniſters reſiding there have not as yet been able to obtain a poſitive Anſwer to their reſpective Memorials lately deliver'd. Don Sebaſtian de la Quadra, Secretary of State, declar'd a few Days ſince, that the King had receiv'd certain Intelligence that ſeveral foreign Veſſels carried on Commerce in New-Spain, with which his Catholick Majeſty was greatly diſſatisfied, thoſe Veſſels cauſing very great Hurt to his Subjects.

That the Cold and Drought continues with great Violence, inſomuch that the Earth produces nothing; and if no Change happens, Grain muſt be imported from England, Holland, and the North-Country.

April 7. Yeſterday Morning ten very large Engines for extinguiſhing Fires, made by Mr. Newſham of Cloth-Fair, by order of the Czarina, were put on Board a Ruſſian Pink lying near the Tower, and bound to Petersburgh, to be plac'd in her Czarian Majeſty's Palaces.

'Tis adviſed from Petersburgh, that the Czarina is ſorely afflicted for the Loſs of the brave General Leſly, whoſe Body ſhe has ſent for to Petersburgh to be pompouſly interred, whoſe Servants ſhe deſigns to provide for during Life: That 30 young Gentlemen have accompanied Prince Anthony Ulrick of Brunſwick to the Army in Ukrania, and have voluntarily engaged to ſupport and defend him in all Accidents and Dangers that may happen; and that her Czarian Majeſty, being ſenſible that the Turk by all his Propoſals and Negociations, ſeeks only to gain Time, in order to aſſemble his Forces, and fall ſuddenly upon the Chriſtians, is reſolved to uſe her utmoſt Speed in opening the Campaign, in which ſhe not only expects to be backed by the Emperor, but alſo by the Poles.

From Rome and Naples, that the Rains which were ſo much wanting in all Parts of Italy, have lately fallen in ſuch Abundance there, that ſeveral Rivers overflowed their Banks; but the exceſſive Drought in Spain ſtill continues.

From Dantzick, that Liſſa, a ſmall City of Poland ſituated on the Borders of Sileſia, is blocked up, becauſe of the Plague being broke out there; and that the Dantzickers muſt deal largely with the Engliſh and Dutch for Corn, becauſe the Famine in Poland has contributed very much to ſtraiten them.

It is confirmed by yeſterday's French Letters, that his Imperial Majeſty has condeſcended to grant his ſecond Daughter in Marriage to the King of the Two Sicilies.

April 8. We hear that great Preparations are making in all our Settlements in the Eaſt-Indies to attack Angria the Pyrate; and that as ſoon as the Ships arrive from England with the Stores, Officers, &c. the Deſign will be put in Execution. There is more Reaſon to expect Succeſs now, as Plaintain, the Madagaſcar Pyrate (who for ſome time had the Direction of Angria's Naval Force, and who was a very expert Sailor) lately died at Allabeg.

We hear that his Majeſty, in order to encourage a Breed of ſtrong Horſes and Mares in England, will, another Year, order ſuch a Number of the King's Plates (to be drawn by Lots) to be run for by Horſes, &c. carrying 14 Stone Weight, and the Mares Plates at Newmarket to be at 12 Stone; there being a general Complaint of the preſent ſlight Breed.

From the Hague. That an Accommodation was concluded between the Courts of Berlin and London. Lord Theodore having been at Paris, was order'd to depart the Kingdom in 48 Hours, he embark'd precipitately at Rouen, and arrived at Amſterdam attended by four Italian Domeſticks, took up his Quarters at the Sign of the Stag; where two Citizens cauſed him to be arreſted, on a Claim of 16,000 Florins, &c.

From Hanover. That the King of Great-Britain, after the Example of other Princes of the Empire, had conſented to furniſh the Emperor with a Body of Hanoverians to ſerve againſt the Turks.

From Naples. That his Sicilian Majeſty has reduced the Intereſt of the Publick Debts from 8 to 4 per Cent, and that there was a Project on Foot to appropriate a great Part of the Revenues of the Church in that Kingdom to the Uſe of the Government; and that each Fryar and Nun would be allowed a certain Sum, and no more, for their Subſiſtance.

From Madrid. That purſuant to a particular Convention made between the Courts of Spain and Portugal, Orders have been diſpatch'd by each to the Governors of their reſpective Provinces in America, to publiſh a Suſpenſion of Arms, to continue till the Difficulties be adjuſted which relate to the ſettling of the Limits on each ſide.

From Naples. That the King of the Two Sicilies has lately eſtabliſh'd a new Council of War; and has appointed the Duke de Monteleon Pignatelli to go Ambaſſador to the Court of Great-Britain. It has been determin'd, that all the Eſtates that have been ſequeſter'd on Account of the late War, ſhall be reſtor'd to the Proprietors as ſoon as the Peace ſhall be publiſh'd. Four arm'd Galleys are juſt departed hence to cruize upon the Corſairs of Barbary.

From Rome. That the eldeſt Son of the Pretender is preparing to travel, incognito, into ſeveral European Countries; and that he intends to go directly to Turin, to aſſiſt at the Rejoycings made there on occaſion of the Marriage of the King of Sardinia.

They write from Conſtantinople, that two Ruſſian Ships that were cruiſing on the Black Sea, have been taken by a Turkiſh Brigantine, which was going from Conſtantinople to Caffa in Crimea; and whoſe Crews, conſiſting of 126 Men, were all made Slaves.

From Leghorn. That the Zeal of the Rebels in Corſica does not ſlacken in the leaſt on Account of the Abſence of Lord Theodore; but that they continue firmly united to one another, and determine to die rather than pay Obedience to the Genoeſe.

Edinburgh, April 26. Laſt Friday died at Anwick in his Way to the Bath, Mr. Alexander Bayne, of Logie, Advocate, Profeſſor of Municipal Law in our Univerſity.

Briſtol, April 8. On the 30th ult. departed this Life, Mr. Alexander Arſcot, one eminent among the People call'd Quakers, at the School-Houſe near this City for educating the Children of that Profeſſion. He was about 40 Years ſince a Clergyman of the Church of England, but receding from that to the Profeſſion he died in, he was appointed by that Body of People Maſter of the ſaid School, in which Station, (and that of a Preacher for about 10 Years paſt) he continued with great Care, Labour, Integrity, Juſtneſs and exemplary Life, to the Day of his Death. As he was a learned diſcrete Man, Numbers of Perſons had Recourſe to him for his Advice in intricate and perplexing Affairs, which had that ſalutary Effect, ſo as to heal many a Breach, and prevent many Law-ſuits. He might be ſaid, while living, to be the living Father of the Dead, for ſcarce any one Man had more Wills and Eſtates in Truſt left to his prudent Care and Management, and no Man acted more to the Contents ſpecified by the deceaſed. To ſay no more of him, his good Works will be a living Monument to his Memory. His Corpſe was carried from the Fryary Meeting, and interr'd in the Burying-yard on Redcliff-Becks attended by ſome Hundreds of People of different Perſwaſions.

Boſton, June 23. We hear that the General Court have made a Grant of Two Hundred Pounds of the Bills of the new Tenour, to the Rev. Mr. Holyoke, for his Support this Year as Preſident of Harvard College, and the Sum of One Hundred and Forty Pounds of the Bills to be paid to the Order of the Society in Marblehead, to which Mr. Holyoke now ſtands in a paſtoral Relation, upon Ordination of another in his Room. The Bills are proclamation Value.

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.

Saturday laſt Henry Wildman and Catherine Smith alias Connor, were executed here for Burglary: Brandford who was condemn'd with them for a Robbery, had a Reprieve, and became their Executioner. Wildman had been impriſon'd here for a Fact of the ſame kind about two Years ago, but the Evidence leaving the Country before the Court, he was diſcharged without Tryal; yet this was not a ſufficient Warning to him. He ſaid he was 53 Years old, and had followed Thieving ever ſince he was 25. He confeſs'd himſelf a great Sinner in other reſpects, appear'd penitent, and caution'd all to take Warning by his ſhameful End. He was a Shropſhire Man, and by Trade a Nailor. The Woman ſaid little or nothing. She had been condemn'd for the like Crime laſt Year, but was repriev'd and diſcharg'd, and immediately took to the ſame Practice again, having ſince committed ſeveral notorious Felonies, beſides this for which ſhe now ſuffer'd. She left a young Child behind her, with which ſhe was pregnant at the Time of her Condemnation laſt Year, tho' not found quick with Child by the Jury of Matrons impanell'd on that Occaſion. She had been formerly tranſported from Ireland to Virginia.

The ſame Day was executed at Cheſter, Thomas Beven, for Firing and Robbing a Houſe: He confeſs'd himſelf to have been guilty of a great Number of Thieveries, for which he long ſince deſerv'd the End he was now brought to, and deſir'd all to take Warning by him. His firſt Fact was only ſtealing a Pack of Cards, which was followed by many others of more Conſequence in England, whence he was at length tranſported into Maryland, where he continually added to their Number, 'till he came to the Commiſſion of that for which he died.
